

Move your VMWare Workloads to Azure

Flyer

Worried about VMware price shocks?

VMware license costs are set to soar by 3X to 10X this year. It might just be time to move to the cloud. So, we ask you to consider: Why just migrate to the cloud? Why not modernize your applications too?

And the best part? You can do it at minimal cost. Embrace your enterprise's future with Azure cloud migration and application modernization, funded by Azure.

Why Hexaware?

With Azure, Hexaware simplifies your move to the cloud and helps you increase the benefits of cloud-native services, save on costs, and accelerate your transformation.

We help you assess, choose the right transformation for your applications, and take the fastest, most cost-effective, lowest-risk journey to the cloud—all in just 2 steps.

Our expertise ensures a seamless transition and continuous optimization of your cloud environment.
