

Application Modernization with AWS

Flyer

The cloud apps market is poised for significant growth with new technologies like AI, GenAI, and Agentic AI coming in to change the game.

Enterprises, however, still face challenges in building cloud apps, such as security vulnerabilities, higher licensing and operational costs, data silos, limited scalability, absence of a strategic cloud roadmap, and governance issues.

Amaze®: Your Trusted Cloud App Modernization Platform

Amaze® is a transformative solution designed to revitalize legacy applications and convert them into advanced, cloud-ready platforms for change.

Our expertise extends to transforming traditional custom-built applications, including Java, .NET, and associated databases, into microservices-led cloud architectures.

Patented Technology: Amaze® leverages Generative AI technology (US Patent no: US 11385882 B2 and UK Patent no: GB2606901) to reduce manual tasks by 60-80%.

AWS Partner Network (APN) Recognition: Our intelligent cloud journey automation platform Amaze® has been recognized for its cost-effective and secure approach to application modernization

The Synergy Between Amaze® and AWS

With AWS services, Hexaware's Amaze® platform stands at the forefront in transforming middleware and re-architecting applications for a cloud-native environment. With over 900+ AWS-certified professionals, we ensure smooth and efficient modernization.
