Building Your Framework with Hexaware

How we assure business users benefit from self-service across all levels

Step 1

Bringing in the Right Data: Ingestion and Modeling

In your Fabric adoption journey, our data ingestion, data transformation, and data modeling agents automate pipelines and build new frameworks.

Here Hexaware ensures enhanced efficiency of data pipelines.

Step 2

Ensuring its Accuracy: Governance & Security

Data quality and profiling agents keep your data clean, structured, and business-ready.

Here Hexaware secures data management and compliance.

Step 3

Sustaining Performance: Transformation & Validation

STTM and data validation agents turn ETL into STTM rules, auto-test and report, alert teams, and apply self-healing.

Here Hexaware assures upkeep for comprehensive data processing & validation.
