

Manage Your Data Smarter with Microsoft Fabric

Reduce costs, unlock intelligence, and grow value

Flyer

Your data should make decisions easier—not harder. But when data is scattered across complex systems, costs rise, teams slow down, and opportunities get missed.

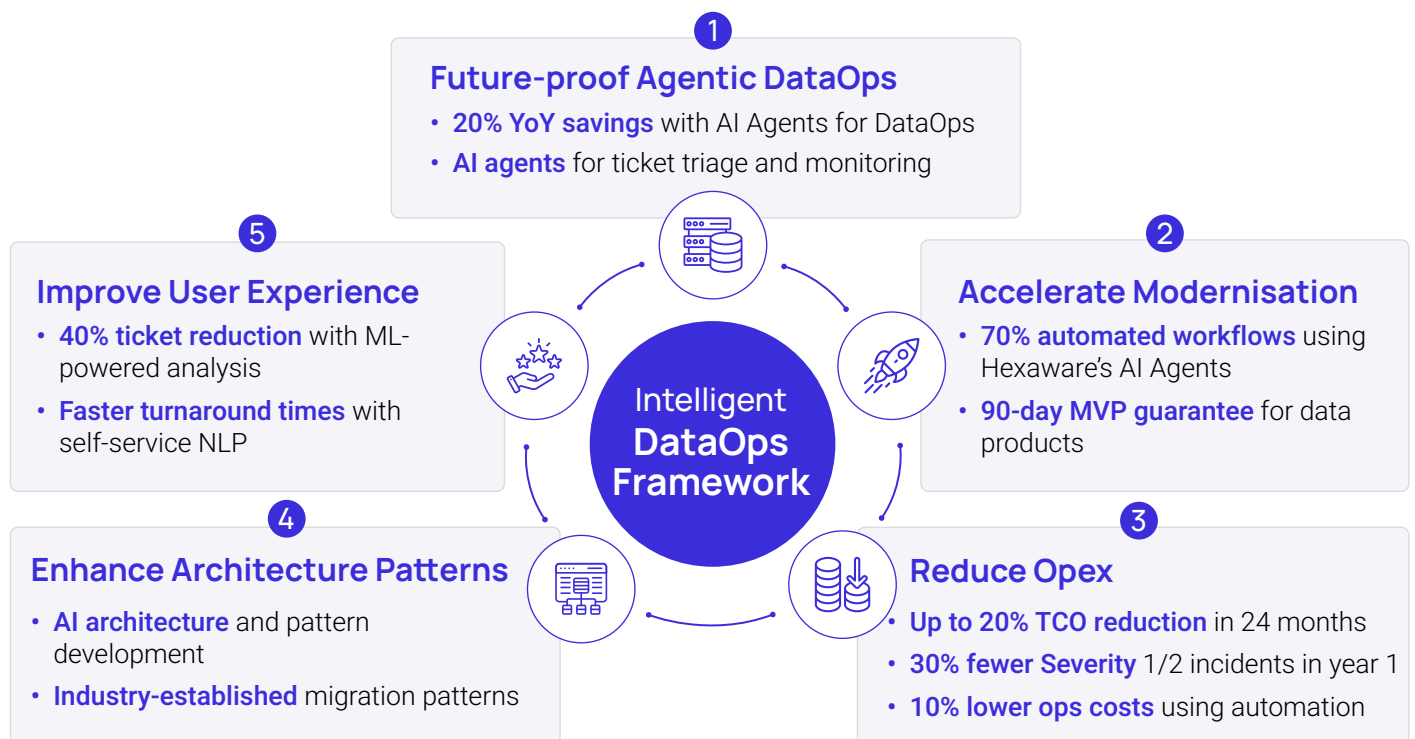

Simplifying, modernizing, and automating your data operations, power your teams to spend less time managing data and more time putting it to work.

Why Shift to Intelligent DataOps for Managed Services

Hexaware's agentic AI ecosystem, proprietary accelerators, and frameworks

Our approach takes a broader view to uplift the entire data estate by creating reusable patterns, leveraging proven accelerators, and streamlining modernization efforts. This helps make better use of existing resources while building a foundation that's easier to scale and maintain.

Hexaware's Framework and Benefits

Hexaware's AI Agents for Smarter Data Management

Powered by neurosymbolic AI and context knowledge graphs

- Data Ingestion Agent: Code generation and comprehension based on NLP inputs enable efficient and faster data ingestion.
- Data Transformation Agent: Framework integration and NLP-driven code generation support accurate, error-free, and faster data transformation.
- Knowledge Base Agent: Smart search solution for efficient knowledge management. Prescribe actions based on the information present in the tickets.
- Monitoring Agent: Continuously tracks pipeline health and provides proactive alerts to prevent failures.
- Traceability Agent: Ensures end-to-end visibility of data flows, enabling faster debugging and compliance adherence.
- Ticket Exploration Agent: Automates ticket triage and prescribes solutions based on historical patterns.
- Self-Healing Agent: Resolves repetitive issues autonomously, reducing manual intervention and turnaround time.
